DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 04/17/2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 42-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vulg (US 5,798,068) in view of EP 0 397 506 A2.

Vulg discloses (see Fig 2) an apparatus for producing polymer-coated fibers comprising at least one sprayer nozzle including a plurality of orifices (8) for spraying a molten polymer stream upon the fibers and capable of spreading the coated fiber of the roving without making contact with the coated fiber of the roving (see column 3, lines 30-36), wherein the ejected polymer is capable of spreading the coated fibers (because of the arrangement spacing between orifices or slots). Vulg lacks teaching reel means, a heating chamber for housing each of the at least one sprayer nozzle and a cooling chamber for cooling the molten polymer, although a heated polymer material is taught (see column 3, lines 17-20). Yet, the use of reel means, cooling means and cutting means are within the scope of ordinary skill in the art in manufacturing fiber-reinforced material. For instance; EP'506 discloses a reel means including a bobbin (11) with sets of wheels (see Fig 1), a chamber for at least one sprayer (see enclosed head 18, Fig 1), a cooling means (19) and a chopper (19). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include a heating chamber in Vulg to maintain the melted coating material at desired temperature. As to the cooling means, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include a cooling means in Vulg to solidify the molten polymer on the substrates or fibers. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include a cutting means in Vulg to cut the impregnated web to pieces of proper length ready for packing as taught by EP'506 (see column 5, lines 29-34). With respect to the reeling means, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include a reeling means as claimed in Vulg to transport the fibers through the desired processing stations.
